

Hotel d'Inghilterra

ROMA

The most iconic hotel in Rome, preferred by the international jet-set

Hotel d'Inghilterra exudes old-world charm and timeless elegance. With its captivating history and stunning central location, it's no wonder that this distinguished hotel continues to be the first choice for discerning guests. The building dates back to the mid-16th century and originally served as guest quarters for the noble Torlonia family, who resided in the Palazzo across the road. As early as the 15th century, the area was renowned for hosting the city's best hotels, attracting visitors from all over the world. A favourite of the international elite, the hotel has welcomed international figures like Ernest Hemingway, Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor and Gregory Peck.

Location

A short walk from the legendary Spanish Steps and the bustle of the fashion district - Via Condotti, Via Borgognona and Via Frattina - the hotel is in an exceptional location close to Rome's greatest attractions, including the Trevi Fountain, the Roman Forum and Villa Borghese, the city's largest park.

Restaurant & Bar

Guests at the Hotel d'Inghilterra can enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of the capital while comfortably seated at a table in the chic open-air dining area of the Café Romano restaurant, or pamper themselves with a superb cocktail in the classic British setting of the Bond Bar.

The bar is an oasis of relaxation, the ideal place to enjoy a pleasant coffee break during your day in Rome or to sip a Martini cocktail prepared by renowned mixologist Roberto Pezzuco.

With its elegant outdoor tables on Via Borgognona, the elegant pedestrian-only shopping street, Café Romano is the ideal spot for Brunch after a morning spent shopping, for an elegant dinner or refreshing drink. The refined, cosmopolitan ambience provides a perfect backdrop to the creative dishes on the menu, a tribute to Roman cuisine and seasonal ingredients.
